

WHAT IT MEANS TO

FLEXECUTE:

- × Ability to Execute at a moment's notice!
- × Priority Treatment always given to the Flexecution Customer.
- × Doing whatever it takes to get the job done and make the Customer happy.
- × Be prepared and organized before heading to any Flexecution jobsite.
- × Prior to job commencement, study all literature and job materials that are provided. You must thoroughly understand every project.
- × Be clean shaven, well groomed and wear a collared shirt when working on Flexecution projects.
- × Complete all work in a quality and timely manner.
- × Always act in a professional manner
- × Ongoing thorough communication with Flexecution Management before, during and after any project
- × Contact Flexecution Management immediately if there are any problems or issues.
- × Arrive 15 - 30 minutes prior to job start.
- × Always demonstrate a positive upbeat attitude on a Flexecution jobsite.
- × Communicate with store / facility management prior to, during and after a job is complete.
- × No cell/mobile phone use on the jobsite unless for job related purposes.
- × Never use profanity or comments that may be considered offensive.
- × Never be confrontational with anyone on the jobsite. No exceptions.
- × Safety first - Remember to use good safety practices while on the job.
- × Proper clean-up of all areas after project completion.
- × Take multiple, in-focus, high resolution photos of all areas of work completed and cleaned.
- × All job sign offs, activity reports and photographs must be submitted to Flexecution Management within 24 hours of job completion.

